2/ Stewart Reuben's report on round 4

Today was the visit to Morocco. Yesterday was extremely sunny in Gibraltar, but it rained heavily today. However, the weather was good after the ferry trip and everybody who went obviously enjoyed themselves much more than last year.

In England we do not like players to win by default. Amateurs come to play and why should strong players gain an advantage against their peers with no effort? Today a Spanish player did not pitch up without giving any warning. I looked around but there was nobody else available to act a filler. Thus I stepped in and maintained the record of the administration team. This is played 5 and won 5. We intend to claim a joint first prize in due course prize.

Thus I did not see much of the play. Paul Motwani had a virtually inning position against the young lad from Kalmykia, Ernesto Inarkiev. The Russian found a tactical resource and the Scot lost his confidence and his way and only drew. Apparently Sarunas Sulskis was still trying to win with the material imbalance of two bishops and four pawns against a queen plus three pawns, all on the same side of the board. Such an optimistic attitude can be most rewarding at times. Objectivity isn't everything.

Chanda Sandipan and Surya Ganguly both won and thus resumed their lead in the tournament now with 3½/4. Since they were sole leaders with 2/2 and thus met in Round 3, they must float down in Round 5. Elsewhere results went very much with rating and all but one of the unrated players lost. Vladimir Epishin has still not been able to shake of his bad form and failed to beat the young Australian, albeit with the black pieces.

1/ Games from Cramling-Dreev (board 6) and Matto – Bellon (board 27) from round 4 will be appended to bulletin 5 once they have been deciphered! Please be kind to your administrative team - the nights are getting longer, and bulletins later, because we can't unscramble a lot of the scoresheets!
