2/ Stewart Reuben's report on round 5

Today we had the first junior tournament. We expected about 20 entrants, but, in the event, there were about 70. This took up most of my time for the day. It may seem then as if most of my attention is directed to peripheral events. There is some measure of truth in this, but they add considerably to the colour and ambience of any chess event.

Both Ganguly and Sandipan continued their winning ways. They now have 4½/5 and are chased by the pack of Short, Dreev and Harikrishna. Some pack, huh?

I will whet your appetite by leaving you to find the game that went on and on, where one player had two rooks against a queen and it concluded that way. But the queen was a different one from at the start of the game. I do enjoy games that are a swirling mess.

Take a look at the game between seven-year old Peter Williams and the ten-year old veteran George O'Toole. About 15 moves of theory in the Marshall, culminating in a piece sacrifice by black. George has entered this for the £500 best game prize.

Oh by the way, the player I beat, as a filler, in round 4, won the Under 18 section in the Junior tournament. For some reason the spoilsport arbiters would not allow me to play. Something to do with my being grey and bald I believe.

5/ Author's miscellaneous

1/ Games from Cramling-Dreev (board 6) and Matto – Bellon (board 27) from round 4 will be appended to bulletin 6, since they still have to be deciphered! PLEASE MAKE ALL SCORESHEETS LEGIBLE AS PER THE RULES OF CHESS – this problem is delaying the bulletins and distribution onto the website!

2/ All entries for the £500 best game prize to the control room as soon as possible please for consideration.

3/ This is the first time this time-control has been used. Feedback to date seems very favourable, but we would like any comments you have to make please.
