2/ Stewart Reuben's report on round 10

To paraphrase the song, and now the end is nigh and soon we'll face the final curtain. All good chess events come to an end and this one is no exception. Nigel Short demonstrated what a class player he is, winning in the last round and also winning the best game prize. As he said, this was one of his most convincing wins for many a long year.

Surya Ganguly took second place. There were a whole string of Indian competitors there or thereabouts. It is much to their credit that they played to the best of their ability. The concept of teammates playing to maximise the prize money of their group is long gone - and chess is greatly enriched by the modern attitude.

Five people obtained title norms. First among these is Tejas Bakre, who secured his final gm norm. Then there is David Howell. He is all of 12 years old, but was getting very anxious about his im title. Well, now all each has to do is reach the required rating level, 2500 and 2400 respectively. Christian Seel (im), Ghate Swati (wgm) and Till Wippermann (im) also secured norms. Something of a norm factory from only 84 players.

The Moroccans secured good (no, for them extremely good) prizes from the Amateur tournaments. The children who took part enjoyed seeing the apes and the dolphins and also themselves performed well. The one-day junior was a delight, albeit somewhat noisy. The kibbitzers must have enjoyed voting on the web for their favourite best game, which Nigel won against Rustan Pogorelov.

We hope to see you next year in Gibraltar at the same time, 25 January to 3 February 2005. This event is really enjoyable, really friendly and really competitive. Our time eventually in heaven is unlikely to be better.

Stewart Reuben – somewhat worse for wear due to the excellent Gibraltarian hospitality. 02.40, 5 February 2004.

3/ Author's miscellaneous

1/ £500 best game prize was decided today, plenty of views had been expressed on the internet but one clear favourite emerged from the pack and concurred with competition arbiter Stuart Conquest. The winner for 2004 was Nigel Short, for his game against Rustan Pogorelov. Some of the Best Game Candidates can be found on the website.

2/ Even though the competition has finished, for those of you who haven't had chance to fill in the questionnaire, we would like you to give us any constructive you have after the event. Please e-mail to gibraltarchess@ntlworld.com.

Index of Columns :

A = Points scored in the tournament.

B = Number of rated opponents. (N)

C = Points scored against rated opponents. (W)

D = Average of rated opponents. (Rc). Not printed if B<4 and player is unrated.

E = Score expectation against rated opponents only. (We)

F = Actual game score less Expected score (rated players). (W-We). Multiply by co-efficient K to get change in rating.

K = 25 for up to 30 FIDE rated games; then K = 15 until rating reaches 2400 when K = 10.

F = With -- in column E. FIDE performance rating of unrated players scoring > 50% against rated opponents.

F = FIDE performance Rating of unrated players. Not printed if B<4

Title column: g = Grandmaster; m = International Master; f = FIDE Master; wg = Woman Grandmaster; wm = Woman International Master; wf = Woman FIDE Master; w = Woman player (no title).

Maximum difference in rating is calculated as 350 points.
