2/ Manuel Weeks' report on round 10

Becoming a grandmaster in Style

Last rounds have rules of their own, we have three players leading into the last round, all are deserving of winning the Gibtelecom Masters tournament yet it is also possible that by losing in the last round not only do they do not win but a number of players will jump over them! These are some of the thoughts going through the minds of Alexei Shirov, Emil Sutovsky and Zahar Efimenkov.

Alexei Shirov got there by defeating Canadian GM Kevin Spraggett in a sharp Sicilian Kan. It developed into a hedgehog formation where black develops along his three ranks waiting for an opportunity to break out. The position was completely unclear when Spraggett allowed a tactic which led to a direct mating attack. This now allows the eagerly awaited clash between Alexei Shirov and Emil Sutovsky. The Israeli GM won in a beautiful attacking game against grandmaster Alexander Areschenko. Having the black pieces did not deter big Emil from castling queenside and launching the g-pawn at Areschenko's king. Then one piece was sacrificed, then another and before long Areschenko was seen heading off to the analysis room to be shown the error of his ways! We now have two entries for the Best Game Prize – both from Emil!! Is there anyone else out there who has a game that can be considered? Or perhaps you can conjure something up in Round 10!!

The third player to join the lead was Zahar Efimenkov who is now in a position for the best result of his career. He defeated US Champion Hikaru Nakamura in the last game to finish. The game was a Scandanavian defence where white always had the advantage of the two bishops. He at one stage was forced to take up a defensive pose with all of his pieces tied up defending each other. In order to break the hold the American sacrificed the exchange but to no avail as the Ukrainian calmly won the ending.

Sergey Erenberg defeated Israeli GM Boris Avrukh in a nailbiting game where both players had used their allotted time and were living on their incremental time. Even though it was an ending of two rooks versus rook and two minor pieces it was still a very unclear position but eventually the minor pieces came out victorious.

GM elect Danny Gormally played up to his new title and drew with Armenian Lev Aronian in a sharp game where both sides castled queenside in what is now known as the Shirov variation of the Slav defence. Aronian will have to go all out with the black pieces in the last round in order to make the podium.

The women's prize has three leaders Kateryna Lahno, Almira Skripchenko and Ketevan Arakhamia with Pia Cramling half a point behind. With a substantial women's prize on offer I expect to see the ladies go for the full point today.

On the Norms front, in addition to Danny Gormally's GM title, Thomas Rendle, Hamad Al-Tamimi and Gary Quillan have all achieved IM norms here at Gibraltar 2005 - whilst wins in the final round for Saleh Jasim and Margarida Coimbra would secure IM and WIM norms respectively, so good luck!

DON:T FORGET TO GET YOUR GAMES IN FOR THE BEST GAMES PRIZE!!

- £500 for the winner.

Only TWO games and ONE candidate to date!!!

PLEASE CONTINUE TO KEEP YOUR SCORESHEET LEGIBLE for the last round – or at least copy it up neatly afterwards! – we need to get the bulletin finished in the early hours before we all disappear tomorrow.

If you know of players who would like a bulletin but don't have a computer please ask them to see us and we will arrange paper copies for them. Don't forget bulletins can be downloaded straight on to your computer:

<http://www.gibraltarchesscongress.com/gibchess/Gibmastersmainpage.htm>

Photographs are on the web for masters and challengerssections – if you would like any of them for own use in publications, please feel free as long as an acknowledgement to Bill O'Rourke is given.

If you would like high resolution copies for serious publications that you can download, send Bill an e-mail on gibraltarchess@ntlworld.com either during the tournament or up to a month after and Bill will make them available over the web for you to download.

- you can play through the games on the net
