Three players have 3/3, although Alan Dunn can claim to have 5/6, having scored 2/3 in the Masters where only Alexei Shirov has been able to score a point from him. The young Norwegians have been buoyed up by their success in the Team Lightning tournament. Board three was an all-Norwegian game which ended with a neat Na5 move, where Rc8 would be answered by Nb7, trapping the queen on its home square. Generally it was a bloodthirsty round, with only two games ending in draws. We weren't able to figure out the final moves played in Slimani-Kuenitz - if the players would like to contact us, or the controller, we will include the complete score in the next bulletin.
